

OLA Preschool Weekly Update March 8, 2019

OLA Preschool students celebrated Mardi Gras!

Fr. Joel administered ashes and taught about Lent on Ash Wednesday! Preschool students are welcome to add change to our school rice bowl.

Thank you to preschool parent, Vicky Smith, for visiting OLA Preschool as our surprise author! Vicky read her book Fuzzy Fox of Ashford Park with help from sons, Walker and Weston!

The Cat in the Hat performance was enjoyed by all!

Coming Up Next Week: On Friday, March 15th OLA Preschool will be open from 8:30-12:30 due to OLA School Grandparents Day. Parents are asked to be prompt to both morning and afternoon carpool. Carpool congestion is expected to be heavy.

The preschool Parent Party is now scheduled for Friday, May 3rd at Ansley Golf Club. The preschool will use only fundraising money to renovate the existing Youth Room for our use. A detailed "save the date" will be sent next week.

OLA Preschool would like for all to remember the Mickells family in their prayers. We hold this family in our hearts as Gwen and parents, Rebecca and Geoffrey, celebrate the birth of baby Henry while mourning the loss of Rebecca's father.

Have A Great Weekend!
